Job Role Profile

We're on the lookout for a true go-getter; a project management specialist who can see potential in opportunities when others may not.

If you're looking for a new role with meaning and feel your expertise could make a difference to an inspirational social enterprise, read on!

You are a project management expert who thrives on building great relationships and managing stakeholders. A self-motivated, self-starter, visionary who can transform ideas into sales.

You are looking for a rewarding and stimulating job doing something you can be proud of. This is a unique opportunity to develop The C.H.E.E.S.E. Project (Cold Homes Energy Efficiency Survey Experts), a not-for-profit Community Interest Company (CIC), as a model franchisee of First Thermal Ltd. (FTL). FTL has been set up as an innovative new social enterprise company to build franchises that replicate the Bristol-based multiple-award-winning C.H.E.E.S.E. Project CIC. The C.H.E.E.S.E. project will be both a pilot franchisee and test-bed for technical and social ideas, delivering enhanced thermal imaging Heatview® surveys to reduce energy loss from homes - thus enabling warmer homes and a cooler planet. You will be joining a team of directors who have successfully developed this pioneering project over six years to address two of the most urgent problems facing society today - climate change and fuel poverty..

This exciting and important development, with an already lauded environmental and social impact, is possible thanks to a grant from Energy for Tomorrow - a Centrica Initiative.

The candidate ideally will be from a Project Management background and have an already strong energy-related network across the Bristol & Bath areas, be good at building relationships and be able to deliver on their promises.

They will work remotely, with an expectation of 1-2 days per week in our Bristol office hub to begin with. A phone, laptop and mileage will be available for this role.

Come and join something new, exciting and fulfilling! The progression here is limitless for the right individual.

Your Role – Project Manager

The C.H.E.E.S.E. Project Manager is a pivotal role to the commercial success of the core business and the new and exciting Franchise network for First Thermal Limited. You will be working with our existing customers to grow revenue, whilst also approaching new customers to expand the client portfolio in the Bristol & Bath areas. This role will involve networking within the owner-occupied and social housing sector of Bristol & Bath to develop further the brand in the marketplace, attending events and building awareness of our unique service and what it offers to existing and new partners, especially local socially-oriented NGOs. At the same time creating a culture of customer service according to the First Thermal standards, ensuring the best possible customer experience.
